About Me

Julian is a loving dad of 2 boys and 1 daughter and has been married to his husband for the past 32 years. Julian and his husband enjoy showing their children the world and traveling with them. They are a tight family and enjoy doing activities together.

Personality

Julian is a little more introverted than his partner but is very interested in exploring and researching. He plans all of their vacations and loves creating detailed itineraries.

Goals

- To show his children more about the Ocean and teach them to be respectful of the Ocean and their environment
- To spend time with his family in an exciting and adventurous way and get to plan it well too

Motivation

Julian knows that as a parent it is his responsibility to make his children caring, adventurous, and educated. He wants to take his children to learn more about the ocean and the coastal reefs. He cares about the environment and wants his kids to as well.
